

Weekend in London - Itinerary

Friday:

Time	Activity	Venue
9:00-9:30	London Sundial	Get the highlights of London history as you circle the sundial.
9:30-11:30	London Mint Tower of London	Make a note of where money was once minted as you pass by the Royal London Mint. Then, proceed on to a tour of the Tower of London
11:30-Noon	Tower Bridge	Stroll along one of London's most famous icons, Tower Bridge.
Noon-1:00	Brown's Café and Brassiere Or Shades Piazza Sandwich Bar	Time for lunch can be a delightful varied menu at Brown's or a light meal at Shades Piazza. Either one will be a fun experience.
1:30-2:45	Design Museum	The only museum of its kind devoted to everyday thing. Definitely worth your time to browse around.
3:00-5:00	More London	This area of London is known as More London. Located here is City Hall, the Scoop, fountains and cafes. A great place to relaxed and do some people-watching.

Saturday

Time	Activity	Venue
9-9:15 am	Gregg's	Gregg's is a London staple for fresh, delicious breads, croissants and muffins. Grab a bag full as you begin you busy walk.
9:30-10:00	Trafalgar Square	Nothing says "London" more than Trafalgar Square. People enjoying the fountains, climbing on the bronze lions and gazing up at Nelson's column. You can't come to London without standing in Trafalgar Square!
10:00-11:45	National Gallery	Truly a beautiful museum. If you don't want to spend the day here, just rent one of the free audio guides and visit the most popular pieces. You will come away with a good feel for this venerable museum.

Noon-1:00	St. Martin-in-the-Fields	The Crypt, just to the right of the church, is a great place to have a healthy and inexpensive meal. The architecture of this Crypt is fascinating.
1:30-2:00	TKTS kiosk	If theater is on your radar, TKTS should be on your agenda. Here you can purchase same-day, discount theater tickets for all the live performances in London.
2:15-3:15	Westminster Abbey	The Abbey is the official church for British Royalty's burials and coronations. History was made here from the time of William the Confessor from 1045-1050.
3:30-4:15	Houses of Parliament and Big Ben	Here is where British government takes place. Big Ben is actually the name of the bell in St. Stephen's Tower.
5:00- ?	Covent Garden	You've had a busy day, now it's time to play. At Covent Garden you can eat, drink, be entertained and shop.

Sunday

Time	Activity	Venue
10:00 – 11:30	Museum of London and the Roman Wall	Even if you aren't a museum buff, this one will entertain you.
11:30-1:00	Barbican Center	Time for lunch? Here's a place where you can find whatever satisfies that tummy craving.
1:30-3:00	St. Paul's Cathedral	Christopher Wren's masterpiece, St. Paul's. You can choose to walk over 600 stairs to the top of the dome or just wander around in the crypt. Whatever you do, this is the heart of London.

3:30-5:00	Tate Modern Museum	Free admission to a rocking museum. The Tate is located in the renovated Bankside Turbine building. You can get a bite to eat or drink, wander around and see some of the greatest art in the world.
5:30- ?	The Globe Theatre	Sam Wanamaker had a goal to build a replica of Shakespeare's Globe Theatre. The Globe opened in 1997, four years after his death. Buy a ticket of as little as 5 GBP and enjoy a reenactment of one of the Bard's best.